

A Holiday Potluck

Celebrate the season with family, friends, & feast

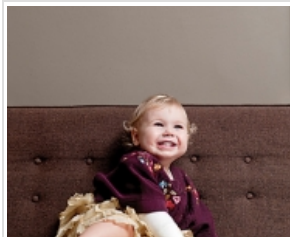

By Janelle Erlichman Diamond. Photography By David Colwell.

Enough with the fussy parties and making yourself crazy all in the name of a good time. Instead, enlist the very people you're going to invite to help create the feast. For our party we asked three local food bloggers—Kit Pollard (mangoandginger.blogspot.com), Dara Bunjon (diningdish.blogspot.com), and Kathy Patterson (minxeats.com)—to make some of their favorite winter dishes.

Our friends over at The Floral Studio created flower arrangements that managed to look rustic and beautiful. And hosts Ben Kutil and Katie McDonough Kutil, two local designers, loaned not just their hip home, but some cool ideas as well.

Assistance by Shabdiee Esfahani and Jessica Hargest. Guests: Melissa and Tessa Harvey, Kimry Perrone, Neil and Holden Eber.
